Welcome messages

Message from the Office of Multicultural Interests

Western Australia is a multicultural, multi-ethnic and multi-religious society whose members are drawn from a rich heritage of cultural traditions and histories. In this vast, diverse State, Aboriginal inhabitants live, work and study along with people originating from more than 200 countries.

Western Australia's citizens speak as many as 270 languages (including Aboriginal languages) and identify with more than 100 religious faiths. Almost one-third (31 per cent) of Western Australians were born overseas and, in addition to English, 15 per cent of the population speaks a language other than English at home.

More than 40,000 Muslims live in Western Australia, and festivals like Eid-ul-Fitri and Eid-ul-Adha are major community events that are celebrated across the State. There are three Islamic colleges and one Islamic school as well as 20 major mosques or prayer halls in metropolitan and regional communities.

The Muslim Guide to Western Australia is a valuable tool offering useful information for Muslim business visitors, tourists and students.

The guide features travel information, such as domestic and international airline services, and lists consulate offices in the metropolitan area. A list of translators and interpreters, halal outlets and mosques is also included.

If you are planning a longer stay in Western Australia, you can find education information including details of Islamic schools and associations in this guide. Details of Federal and State Government agencies including the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade and the Department of Immigration and Border Control, are also listed.

Western Australia is a diverse and exciting place to work, invest, study or holiday. We hope the Muslim Guide to Western Australia will help you enjoy a memorable and valuable stay.

Message from Islamic Council of WA

All praise is to Allah, the magnificent and the merciful, that Western Australia is blessed with countless bounties and exquisite natural beauty. The Western Australian Muslim community welcomes you to our beautiful and vast State that constitutes an important part of the Australian commonwealth.

The Muslim Guide to Western Australia booklet will be a useful during your visit, offering information for Muslim business visitors, tourists and international students from across the Muslim world. The Guide includes various services offered, including consular services and helpful contacts.

Muslim Australians are an integral part of our rich multicultural and social fabric that makes Western Australia one of the most multicultural and socially integrated States of Australia. Close geographical proximity, trade connections and time zones shared by WA with the most populated Muslim neighbour, Indonesia, makes our State truly unique as a future hub for international business and a future platform for enhanced cultural and economic interaction with the Muslim world.

When you come to Western Australia to study, visit or live as a new migrant you will in due course learn about the rich and dynamic history of its people, both ancient Aborigines and modern Australians. You will surely be enlightened that the Australia's oldest post-federation mosque was built in 1905 and is situated in metropolitan Perth. The historical and significant contribution of early Muslims in late 19th century in economic development of Western Australia is also well cherished and enshrined in history of Australia.

Thank you for choosing Western Australia as your tourist, education or a migrant settlement destination.

On behalf of Western Australia's Muslim community I wish you a pleasant and blissful stay in Western Australia.

Aziz Khan

Islamic Council of WA

Taxi

HOW TO CATCH A CAB

In Perth there are five ways to catch a taxi, being:

1. Ring a Taxi Company

The main taxi companies in Perth are:

- Swan Taxis Phone 131330
- Black & White Taxis Phone 131008

2. Download an App for your smartphone

Both Swan Taxis and Black& White Cabs have smartphone Apps which make booking a taxi easier than before.

Ingogo and Uber also operate within Perth and you can communicate directly with drivers who can be booked with their Apps.

www.swantaxis.com.au
www.blackandwhitetcabs.com.au
www.uber.com/cities/perth
www.ingogo.mobi

3. Go to a taxi rank

Perth boasts two types of taxi rank stands, being:

- Conventional ranks located at shopping centres, hotels, airports, main rail stations and in and around the CBD
- supervised taxi ranks (security guards patrol these special night ranks)

4. Hail a cab

Wave your hands and signal to a driver of a passing taxi. Don't get too upset if the taxi doesn't stop - they could be on the way to pick up a passenger or be delivering a parcel.

5. Make an arrangement direct with a private driver

There are many Private Driver Operators who may cater to your needs while in Perth such as:

- Chauffeur Services www.chauffeurperth.com.au

Education for International Muslim Students

Western Australia has a long tradition of welcoming international Muslim students from around the globe. Whether studying at university, college, secondary or primary school, all Western Australian institutions provide a strong and supportive environment to those with Islamic values.

There are several Islamic primary and secondary schools which provide high quality education with a strong focus on Islamic studies. Tertiary institutions have multi-faith chaplaincy services and Muslim prayer rooms, as well as friendly counsellors who can link students with members of the Islamic faith.

Teachers and lecturers are dedicated, culturally aware and sometimes multi-lingual, allowing international students to feel comfortable and accepted in their classrooms.

Homestay families and student hostels are experienced in catering to international students and can ensure that religious practices and dietary requirements are respected. Parents can be confident that their child will receive the encouragement, patience and understanding needed when they are away from their own family and country.

Western Australia's educational institutions are world-class and world-renowned. Each campus teaches fully accredited, quality assured courses that have been assessed and approved under Australian and Western Australian Government legislation.

The State has five universities and a wide variety of English language colleges, vocational colleges, and schools that host over 50,000 international student enrolments per annum from over 140 countries.

Muslim students will find everything they need in Western Australia to achieve both their personal and professional goals.

For more information on studying in Western Australia, or to search for the courses, student services, scholarships and facilities available to Muslim students at each institution, please visit:
